

Simplicity Wrap

By Fiona Kelly of Kelly's Krochet

A gorgeously soft wrap that will keep you warm throughout the winter. Large enough to wrap up in, supple enough to be practical and stylish enough to be seen in.

Size: 73cm wide, 225cm long, 575g

Yarn: Scheepjes Pittsburgh Lichtgrijs (9156) 6 balls

Hooksize: 7mm (The yarn asks for a 5, but I have a fairly tight tension, plus I wanted it to have a nice drape, so choose whichever size you feel the most comfortable with, and that gives the nicest drape for you personally)

Please note, this pattern is suitable for any yarn, and has a versatile design. It would work just as well as a light summer wrap or as a skinny scarf. I'm currently working on a lovely light mohair version, just make sure you use the correct hook size for your chosen yarn, tension and desired drape, and don't forget this will affect the size of the wrap. To adjust the length of the wrap, make fewer or more repeats of row 6. To adjust the width, make a foundation double crochet row to your desired length. The stitch count must be devisable by 3 plus 2 extra stitches.

A note about the edging. 272sc are a lot to count, don't bother counting. Keep it simple. It is simply 2sc per row ☺ But some people like numbers ☺

Stitches used (US terminology)

fdc – foundation double crochet

dc – double crochet

sc – single crochet

ch - chain

ss – slip stitch

Tips

Take your time, read the pattern through 1st. Once you have done a few repeat rows, relax and enjoy the process.

Ch 3 counts as 1st stitch.

Turn after every row.

A note about the edging. 272sc are a lot to count, don't bother counting. Keep it simple. It is simply 2sc per row ☺ But some people like numbers ☺

Row 1: Make a foundation double crochet row of 86 stitches

Row 2: Ch3, 85dc (86 sts)

Row 3 – 5: Repeat row 2

Row 6: Ch3, dc in next stitch, *ch1, skip next stitch, 2dc*, repeat ** to end of row

Row 7 – 131: Repeat row 6

Row 132: Ch3, dc, *dc in ch sp, 2dc*, repeat ** to end of row

Row 133: Ch3, 85dc

Row 134 – 136: Repeat row 133

To Finish: Ch1, sc in same st, 84sc along short edge, (3sc) in corner, sc evenly down the long side of wrap (272sc), (3sc) in corner, 84sc along short edge, (3sc) in corner, sc evenly up the long side of wrap (272sc), 2sc in corner, ss to 1st sc

Give your new wrap a eucalan bath and gently block it into shape. Once it has dried wrap it around you and enjoy a cuddly hug.

Disclaimer: Please do not resell or distribute this pattern either electronically or as a print copy without my express permission. The finished item is your own to do with as you please, I just ask that you give credit to me as the designer. Thank you.